

K-LOVE is a very encouragine station. It is positive and keeps your spirits up. Helps you to realize that you do matter. So many would be completly lost without it. We really need something positive the way our world is today. This station really lets you know you are important and life is worth living.